

people who don't have a home and live on streets, usually because they are poor.

FE 2 Mid-term Oral Examination Questions

1. What is the definition of homeless people? As far as I know, Homeless people or Homeless as a noun means an individual

Expected language use in the answer

1. Relative clause

2. Complete sentence speaking

without permanent housing who may live on streets, abandoned building or vehicle; or in any unstable or non-permanent situation.

2. What is your opinion about homeless people?

Expected language use in the answer

1. Relative clause

2. Complete sentence speaking

To my mind, homeless people is someone who is alone, no proper nighttime residence, such as those living in emergency shelter or places not meant for habitation for some personal reasons or issue.

3. What is processed food?

1. Modal verbs

2. Complete sentence speaking

According to Harvard dictionary, Processed food can be defined as any food that have been modified from their original fresh or whole state.

4. What is your opinion about processed food?

1. Modal verbs

2. Complete sentence speaking

In my perspective, Processed food is any food that have been packed in any package and modified in many step which may include with various unknown ingredients.

5. Other additional questions by the teacher

Note:

1. Please refer to the scoring rubrics in the course syllabus
2. Each students need to answer all the questions above
3. The questions should be given to the students before the interview week (week 8)